

Riparian Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. Trees provide shade which help keeps a stream _____ in the summer.
2. This zone is where land and water meet.
3. A riparian zone is a plant rich and diverse part of an _____, it is also essential for the survival of fish.
4. Trees and shrubs can provide _____ in bad weather.
5. The _____ provided by overhanging branches keeps the water cooler in the heat of summer.
6. Kokanee, rainbow trout and sockeye salmon are all examples of these.

Down

1. Trees provide _____ to protect frogs, fish and insects from predators.
2. Willow, cottonwood, maple and pine are all examples of different kinds of _____ in a riparian zone.
3. These live in trees and become food for fish and other animals.
4. Another name for a creek is a _____.
5. Hawthorn, red osier and wild rose are all examples of different kinds of _____ in a riparian zone.
6. The roots of trees and shrubs _____ pollutants out before they can reach a stream or lake.
7. The part of trees that grow beneath the ground that holds on to the soil so it doesn't enter the water.

